Merit Commendation Winners

Michael D. Ramsey, left, Miss Mary Louise Parris, Marvin Watson and Tommy Pittman have received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Four Appomattox Students Receive Commendation Letters

Cecil B. Tillery, principal of Appomattox County High School announced that four seniors have received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Miss Mary Louise Parris, Tommy Pittman and Michael D. Ramsey received the letters on the basis of their high performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) administered in October 1973.

Marvin Watson was named for achievement as a commended student in the scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students.

Watson is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Willie H. Hix. The senior is a prospective psychology major and plans to apply for entry at Virginia Tech, Hampton Institute and Johnson C. Smith University.

Miss Parris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Parris, Jr. She plans to apply to Longwood College, Westhampton College and William and Mary to attend undergraduate classes leading to a degree in nursing.

The four Appomattox County High School seniors were among 38,000 high seniors honored by the corporation throughout the United States.

The son of Mrs. Anne L. Ramsey, Michael will major in business administration at either Virginia Tech or the University of Richmond.

Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Pittman, Jr. will enter Hampden-Sydney College to major in English. Pittman plans a career in journalism.

These students are among the 38,000 commended students named on the basis of their high performance on the 1973 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). Commended students are in the upper 2 percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1975. Although the Commended students ranked high on the PSAT/NMSQT, their scores were just below those of the 15,000 Semi-finalists who were announced in September by NMSC. Commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition.

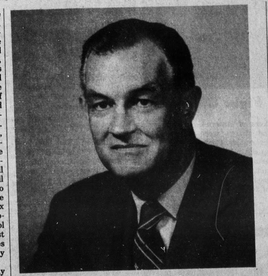
Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC, said: "The high standing of Commended students in the Merit Program shows their great promise, and their attainment in this nationwide program deserves public recognition. The commended students should be encouraged to continue their education. Both these students and our nation will benefit from their further educational and personal development."

To increase their scholarship opportunities NMSC reports the Commended students' names to the regionally accredited colleges they names as their first and second choices when they took the PSAT/NMSQT in October 1973.

Grandest Appomattox Parade Ever - Sixty Entries To March On Saturday

A glorious endeavor of the Appomattox Jr. Woman's Club, the 1974 RAILROAD FESTIVAL PARADE will feature Music, Beauty, History, and Elected Leaders - local, state, and national. Governor Mills Godwin is the parade Grand Marshall, to lead the parade with the Stars and Stripes of the 1825 Color Guard and marches of the U. S. Continental Army Band on Sat., Oct. 12. U. S. Congressman Dan Daniel, State Senator Howard Anderson, State House Delegate Claude Anderson, and Appomattox Mayor Henry Pack will also be in the lead. Music will be provided by eight bands, to include the Appomattox Middle School and the Appomattox School and the Appomattox County High School bands. Trophies for the best bands in different categories will be awarded in a ceremony at the railroad station.

The parade and two day festival will emphasize our American heritage through emphasis on historical themes - Bicentennial, Civil War, and Early Days of the Railroad - but will not be without the beauty of several pageant winners: Miss Dogwood Festival, Miss Virginia State Fair, Miss Farm Bureau and the Beta Sigma Phi Queen. Early American automobiles will be well represented with horseless carriages like the Model-T, Smokey the Bear, the Cactus Joe Choo Choo, and horse back riders will be the children's delight, and the youth of our county will participate through such groups as Brownies, Girl Scouts, and Boy Scouts. Modern locomotion will not be slighted as five Corvettes plus those of the Corvette Club of Lynchburg will ride. Salem and Roanoke park and recreation departments are sending their Baton and Drum Teams to join the many local organizations in what should prove to be the grandest parade to ever march the streets of Appomattox.



The parade will depart the Primary School at 10 a.m. and follow a route along Virginia Ave., Court St., Main St., Church St., and Highland Ave. The Army Band and leader cars will then return to the station platform for a brief ceremony. A historic landmark plaque, commemorating the 1865 Battle of Appomattox Station will be unveiled, and Governor Godwin will speak. The floats will be judged along historic themes and the winners awarded trophies. Judges are: Vernon Womack, Clerk of Court for Prince Edward County; Dr. F. Nathaniel Gatlin, Professor of Music at Virginia State College; and Mrs. Logan Habbard, Jr., Sec.-Treas. for the Virginia Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Mrs. Kay Paris is the Parade Chairman, while Mrs. Ann Robinson and Mrs. Betsy Carter are chairing the festival overall and can be seen on PANORAMA, Channel 7, at 1 p.m. on Fri., Oct. 11.

Appomattox Delegates Attend Central Virginia Conference

Charles Perkins, Jim Nolen, Jim Smith and Rev. Deryl Holliday are attending a two day conference at Virginia Polytech Institute and State University as Wednesday marked the beginning of a goals - setting conference in which more than 125 Central Virginia citizens will be discussing problems of the area and developing strategies to solve those problems.

Keynote speakers at the conference will be James Rouse, Chairman of the Board of the Rouse Company, Columbia, Maryland and Dr. Wilbur Thompson, an economist from Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Citizens selected to attend the conference, which is being held on the campus of VPI and SU in Blacksburg, represent the six major jurisdictions of Central Virginia - - the Counties of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford and Campbell and the Cities of Bedford and Lynchburg - - as well as representing various socio-economic and interest groups.

E. R. Harris, Jr., President of Fidelity American Bankshares, is serving as Conference Chairman. Other individuals representing the different areas of Central Virginia will be serving as discussion leaders.

Participants in the two-day conference will hear and discuss the ideas and plans which have been developed and put into effect in other regions of the United States, evaluate these against the region's needs and desires, and develop new programs tailored to Central Virginia's needs that will improve it economically, socially and physically.

Conference Chairman Harris points out that "the challenges of growth and change must be met by all citizens. We need to know where we've been and where we're going," he explained.

"Through the CENTRAL VIRGINIA TOMORROW process there is no blueprint by bureaucrats imposed on anyone. The process means recognizing the worth and right of everyone to ask questions; to assemble evidence and give everyone the chance to interpret it and explore alternative approaches to problems," Harris said.

According to Ron Wilkinson, Community Relations Manager at WLVA, Inc. and Planning Committee Chairman of CENTRAL VIRGINIA TOMORROW, the conference is only the beginning step in the overall goals - setting process.

"Issues and problems that are defined at the conference will then be discussed at jurisdictional workshops in which many more citizens can become involved," said Wilkinson.

Appomattox Blood Donors

Blood donors and volunteer workers are shown as the Bloodmobile paid a visit to Appomattox Tuesday. Unit was at Liberty Baptist Church.

Correction

There were seven people in the picture of blood donors for the visit of the Bloodmobile to Appomatox on Tuesday of this week in the last issue of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN.

The name of Mark Carter, a 10 pint donor, on the left in the back row, was omitted through error. Mark Carter of Radio Station WTFX was on hand to donate blood Tuesday and we regret the error in omitting his name from the picture.
